

OSAKA JALT PRESENTS

BACK TO SCHOOL

The annual one-day mini-conference which aims to share ideas on a wide range of topics to help everyone start the new school year on a positive note.

With long and short presentations, poster sessions, and plenty of time to socialize (especially at the dinner party afterwards at a nearby restaurant) there is sure to be something for everyone.

Sunday, April 22, 2012

10:00 AM ~ 6:00 PM

Osaka Gakuin University, Building 2

JALT members and full-time students:
¥1000. One-day members: ¥2000.

100% of the proceeds will go to support Tohoku relief efforts.

<http://bts.osakajalt.org>

This year's presentations include: Jason Bartashius; "After School Lessons For Tohoku Children". Thomas Boutorwick; "Individualized Vocabulary Quizzes". Harry Carley; "Wikis or Blogs: Which is right for a writing course?". Gretchen Clark; "Practical Ideas for Developing Learner Autonomy in Secondary Classes". Pahnee Fukui; "Bloom's Taxonomy and Critical Thinking". Sean Gay; "Improving grading efficiency with Word 2010". Kristin Golden; "Using Taboo and Controversial Topics to Engage Intermediate and Advanced Learners". Noriko Kinami and Takaaki Morioka; "Self-motivating Strategies Used by Adult EFL Learners and University Students in Japan". Alison Kitzman; "'Frontloading' Communication Skills and Strategies in Language Classes"... and many, many more! Visit our website for the complete list.

